Aesthetics of becoming playful and self-analysis between reflections and Human research

In the artistic philosophy of Manuella Muerner Marioni Life and the Being plays an absolutely important role, both conceptually and visually. We could say that both are part of a single fascinating idea that existence blends utopia and reality in a game of shapes, space, color.

The artist's aim is to break the order of use of conventional society and the world, showing him through a reflection ephemeral, changing, mutation always new.
